A New Jersey bridegroom fainted at the altar as he led his June bride up to it. Some men would have a fit if they couldn't have a chance to get up to the altar.

It is announced that there will be a lively fight in the Arkansas Democratic State convention. We are now satisfied that Governor Jeff Davis is expected to attend.

William Jennings Bryan has declared against the candidacy of Judge Gray for the nomination for the Presidency. This clears Judge Gray of suspicion and makes him a Presidential probability.

"Does a woman talk too much?" is a question that is being widely discussed. If it is answered either in the affirmative or in the negative it would simply bring on more talk We ignore the interrogative.

Let Hannah Elias retire and pull down the blinds. Nan Patterson is an improvement over the octoroon, and she is enough to occupy the public eye just now. Somehow or other we don't believe Nan did it.

Boys had better quit smoking cigarettes and get busy. At Vanderbilt University a few days ago young women carried off the highest honors for the first time in the history of the University.

Senator Daniel in his speech at the Virginia State Democratic convention said: "Get together, stay together and shoot a solid shot!" Why didn't he tell them that the best gun to shoot with was the Parker gun?

After a romantic love affair of 27 years duration Miss Hannah McNamara, of New York, sues rich Meyer Guggenheimer for $100,000 damages for breach of promise. The fact that a man will dilly-dally with a girl's affections so many years is evidence that Meyer can't well get around. Guess he'll have to settle up for his long drawn out ad-Myeration.

An illustration of the fly-up-the-creek characteristics of Roosevelt was that he issued an "extraordinary official proclamation of guilt" concerning the aged and feeble General James N. Tyner, former postmaster general. He referred to Gen. Tyner as the "chief offender" in the postoffice department scandals and pronounced him guilty of "gross corruption." Roosevelt convicted the old man before his case went to the jury, but the jury acquitted him, with public approval of its verdict. Now Gen. Tyner appeals to the President in a strong letter, asking him to vindicate his gray hairs. Will Roosevelt do it?

POLICE HAD OUTING.

Annual Excursion of Wilmington's "Finest" to Carolina Beach Great Success.

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS.

Athletic Sports and Pistol Practice Witnessed by Large Crowds—Grateful Thanks to Those Who Assisted. Nearly a Thousand Visitors.

The police excursion to Carolina Beach yesterday was a success beyond compare. The weather was delightful and nearly a thousand people went down to join the throng of merry-makers on the four trips of the steamer "Wilmington" during the day. Among the guests of honor were Mayor Springer, nearly every member of the Board of Aldermen and members of the Board of Audit and Finance. Not an untoward incident marred the pleasures of the outing and members of the department, their families and friends had a day of unalloyed pleasure. All day long and until a late hour last night there was music, dancing and refreshments in the spacious pavilion on the beach. At noon a sumptuous dinner was served at the cafe and everything one could wish for upon a seashore outing was at hand.

Of course, the greatest interest centered about the athletic contests and target practice. The several events took place at stated intervals during the day and interested a large number of spectators. The result of the events may be summed up as follows:

THE TARGET PRACTICE.

In the target shoot with 38-calibre Smith & Wesson revolvers over a range of 30 yards, Sergeant C. W. Woolard won the fine hat offered by J. M. Solky & Co., as first prize; Policeman J. J. Johnson, the North Carolina ham offered by Mr. A. H. Holmes, as second prize; Policeman W. C. Moore, the box of cigars offered by H. L. Vollers as third prize, while Policemen J. F. Smith and Frank George took fourth and fifth prizes—a box of cigars and box of fine toilet soap, offered by Mr. J. D. Mote and Mr. B. C. Moore, respectively. The scores were as follows:

C. W. Woolard	12
J. J. Johnson	11
W. C. Moore	9
Frank George	8
J. F. Smith	8
T. G. Evans	6
E. Skipper	5
M. A. Jones	4
C. G. Jones	4
E. R. Chadwick	3
A. D. Smith	3
M. C. Gray	3
L. F. Huggins	2
N. J. Williams	2

Sergeant C. S. Burnett, Messrs. John Daw, J. W. English, J. R. Hardee, W. J. Howard, H. W. Howell, J. J. Moore, E. L. Smith, J. Meier, W. F. Craig and J. B. Farrar failed to score.

THE CHICKEN CONTEST.

The blindfold chicken contest was one of the most amusing features of the day. The handsome hammock offered by Alderman M. G. Tiencken was won by Policeman J. J. Moore, while Hall Officer E. L. Smith captured the second prize—a box of fine cigars, offered by Alderman F. E. Hashagen.

THE FOOT RACES.

The 100 yards dash contest was divided into two classes—heavy weights, or those weighing over 175 pounds, and light weights, or those under 175. The first prize in each was a fine pair of shoes offered by the Mercer & Evans Co. and J. W. H. Fuchs, respectively. The second prize in each was a box of fine cigars, offered by Messrs. T. J. Gore and Adrian & Co. In the heavy weight class, Capt. N. J. Williams came first, Leon George second and E. R. Chadwick third. In the light weight race, J. J. Johnson came first, Frank Geore second and W. J. Howard third.

THE JUMPING CONTEST

In the jumping contest, open only to heavy weights, Capt. N. J. Williams captured the prize.—a box of fine cigars, offered by J. M. Hall & Bro—and L. George and E. R. Chadwick came second and third, respectively.

POLICEMEN RETURN THANKS.

The committee and members of the force as one man desire to return thanks to Capt. Jno. W. Harper for his courtesy in extending to them the complimentary trip and for his uniform kindness to them and members of their families. It will be a long time before the thoughtfulness of Capt. Harper will be forgotten by the men.

The officers also desire to return their thanks to all merchants who donated prizes and assure them that their liberality is highly appreciated. To Wm. E. Springer & Co. they feel especially thankful for a fine, double-barreled, breech-loading shot gun offered for the contests. It was not included in the prizes of the athletic events but was awarded to Policeman I. F. Huggins as holding the lucky number drawn out of a hat.

The members of the force also desire to thank the judges of the contest who entered into the festivities with spirit and enthusiasm, giving entire satisfaction. The judges were Maj. C. H. White, Alderman J. A. Karr and Chief John J. Furlong.

The policemen also desire to thank the three brewing agencies in the city for kindly remembrances during the day in the way of refreshments.

Go to Raleigh on Gough's Rapid Flyer, June 20th. If you don't want to come back on the excursion your ticket can be made good on regular train. See large hand bills or consult Seaboard agents. †

A PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Maude Edna Brower, the Bride of Mr. James Bruce Taylor—Beautiful Reception Followed.

Beautiful in a decoration of evergreens and flowers and thronged with merry wedding guests, the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brower, No. 616 Red Cross street, was the scene last night of an impressive marriage ceremony which joined as man and wife Miss Maude Edna Brower, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brower, and Mr. James Bruce Taylor, a popular young man of Wilmington, the officiating minister having been the Rev. Geo. B. Webster, pastor of Bladen Street M. E church, assisted by the Rev. R. B. Johns, presiding elder of the Wilmington district, M. E church. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock and was one of the prettiest wedding services witnessed in Wilmington in a long time. A beautiful altar had been improvised in the front parlor of the home and there in the presence of hundreds of friends and relatives the young folks plighted their troth as the beautiful strains of "Oh! Promise Me" were softly played by Miss Fannie Corbett, the organist.

The bridal party entered to the tuneful strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. The bride wore a lovely costume of white silk mulle and was attended by Miss Lillie Jones as maid of honor. Miss Jones was becomingly gowned in a beautiful costume of white organdie. The groom was attended by Mr. W. Z. Corbett as best man. The male attendants wore the conventional black. Both before and after the ceremony Miss Corbett played with delightful effect "Rustle of Spring" by Chamenade. The exit of the party from the parlor was to Mendelsohn's Wedding March.

The guests were received for the wedding by Mrs. E. H. Bowdoin and a reception immediately followed the ceremony proper. Delightful refreshments were served in the dining room, Mrs. W. H. Cox, Mrs. T. J. Rann and Mrs. G. B. Webster having received the guests there. A wealth of beautiful and very useful wedding gifts were received, besides letters and telegrams of congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will make their home in Wilmington, where they have a host of friends. The bride is much loved and admired by all in the circle of her acquaintance. The groom is a most excellent young man and is held in the very highest esteem by the people at large.

WEDDING IN WHITE AND YELLOW.

Miss Ida Lee Taylor, the Attractive Young Bride of Mr. Marion Johnson.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, No. 120 Dock street, last night at 9 o'clock, Miss Ida Lee Taylor and Mr. Marion Napoleon Johnson, both popular young people of this city, were married in a beautiful service, performed by the Rev. D. P. Robbins, of Duke, N.C. The parlors of the home were very attractively decorated with palms, plants and flowers, a color scheme of white and yellow having been carried out with pretty effect. The ceremony took place under an arch of evergreens and was witnessed by a large number of friends of the young people.

The wedding marches were skilfully rendered by Miss Mabel Littleton—a bridal chorus from Lohengrin as the party came in and Mendelsohn's Wedding March as they left the room. A selection was softly rendered with charming effect as the words of the service were being spoken. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk trimmed with pearls and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair ferns. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. L. A. Bristow, as dame of honor. Mrs. Bristow wore white organdie over yellow and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns. The groom's best man was Mr. L. A. Bristow, while the other attendants were Miss Mary McKinney with Mr. S. Francis Garrison, and Miss Mary Dickey with Mr. Luther A. Curtis. The male attendants wore suits of the conventional black with boutonnieres of white carnations. The bridesmaids wore white organdie over yellow. Following the ceremony a wedding reception was given at which many beautiful presents were displayed and the bride and groom received the congratulations of very many friends.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Rich, of Funston; Miss Lucy Robbins, of Funston, and Mr. Owen Taylor, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

STATE B. & L. LEAGUE

First Annual Meeting of State Organization Being Held at Wrightsville Beach.

AN EXCURSION TO-DAY.

Address by President Wittkowsky and Yearly Report of Secretary and Treasurer—Sessions on the "Compton" This Morning.

The first annual meeting of the North Carolina Building and Loan League was called to order by President S. Wittkowsky, of Charlotte, at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, at 8 o'clock last night. Vice President T. A. Marshall, of Wadesboro; Secretary and Treasurer E. L. Kersler, of Charlotte; a majority of the Executive Committee and a number of members and visitors were in attendance. The body is not the largest of those which will hold their annual meetings at Wrightsville this season, but it is perhaps one of the most representative and important. Other delegates are expected to arrive to-day.

After the opening preliminaries last night the address of welcome was delivered by Mr. Iredell Meares, of the Wilmington bar, in his characteristic manner of enthusiasm and cordiality. He spoke of the industrial progress of Wilmington within the past few years, quoted authentic statistics of the volume of business transacted at the port and ascribed much of the general prosperity of the community to the seven flourishing building and loan enterprises in successful operation here. The response in behalf of the visitors was by Heriot Clarkson, Esq., of the Charlotte bar, who brought glad tidings from the Queen City, which he declared the "garden spot of the world." His acknowledgement of the welcome expressed by Mr. Meares was graceful in the extreme.

The principal feature of the session was the annual report of President Wittkowsky, one of the leading and most enterprising business men of Charlotte and a moving spirit in the building and loan life of that city. He may well be called the father of the Building and Loan League, for it was largely through his instrumentality that a permanent organization was effected at Wrightsville a year ago. In his address last night he pointedly set out the necessity for a State association and pointed out some matters of remedial legislation that lay in its path of duty. He advocated a repeal of all the laws now on the statute books with reference to building and loan associations and the re-enactment of another more suitable and simplified. Present laws are out of date, he said, and were framed when the State did not have the number of home institutions it has now. Amendments have been tacked on from year to year until the law is now like a crazy quilt. It needs to be simplified. Many of the provisions were aimed at foreign corporations, which was all well and good, but they were unjust in many ways to home enterprises. President Wittkowsky recommended the appointment of a committee to use its best endeavor at the next session of the legislature to procure the passage of a law as set forth in a draft which he submitted.

The League at once acted upon the suggestion of Mr. Wittkowsky and appointed Messrs. Jno. H. Gore, Heriot Clarkson and Chase Brenizer to constitute the legislative committee.

The report of Secretary and Treasurer Keesler followed the address of the president. The work of the League during the year was reviewed. The interest was not so great as it should have been and only a small number of associations had affiliated with the State organizations. However, those included in its membership handled a large percentage of the capital invested in building and loans in the State.

To-day the visitors will come up to the city and go for an excursion to Southport and to sea on the steamer "Compton," leaving Wilmington at 9:30 A. M. All persons interested in building and loans are requested to accompany the visitors on the trip. All will be cordially welcomed with their friends. A business session of the League will be held aboard the boat.

To-night another session will be held at the Seashore Hotel. Mr. W. M. Cumming, of Wilmington, will discuss "The Differences Between a Building and Loan Association and a Savings Bank." There will also be addresses by Mr. Jno. H. Gore, Mr. J. A. Marshall and others.

Two Excursions Here.

Two big excursions arrived in the city yesterday over the Atlantic Coast Line. One came from Mullins, S. C., and was under the management of the Mullins Guards. The other was from Mount Olive. Nearly all the excursionists went down to the beach, returning late in the afternoon and leaving in the early evening for their homes.

Excursion From Columbia.

The Seaboard Air Line railway will on Friday, June 24th, sell round trip tickets to Wilmington, N. C., at rate of $2.00 from Columbia, with correspondingly low rates from other points. Tickets will be good on special train leaving Columbia at 7 A. M., arriving Wilmington at 2:30 P. M.; returning, special train will leave Wilmington at 5 P. M. June 25, 1904.

A dip in the ocean these hot afternoons is a pleasure beyond compare—car every half hour in the afternoon. ‡

INSIPIENT RIOT AT HOPE MILLS.

"Lunette, the Flying Lady" Show Attached by Cotton Mill People.

[Fayetteville Observer, 15th.]

There was a small sized riot at Hope Mills, Morgan village last night. A show tented around the town lot, the show called "Lunette, the Flying Lady." The troupe arrived in wagons, and coals were dug, two women, and a man, pitched their tent on the lot on the hill, where last night the riot was given. After the show some boys threw stones at the tent and, the show people claim, broke the lamps and otherwise tried to wreck the outfit. The showmen then charged the crowd and one of them—J. G. Adams by name—used a pistol freely, aided and abetted, so it is claimed, by one D. W. Davis, the proprietor of the show. One of the bullets struck a young man named J. F. Lewis, breaking his leg.

Shortly after the occurrence Sheriff Marsh and Deputy Sheriff Monaghan arrived on the scene and arrested Davis and Adams and placed them in jail.

This morning they were given a preliminary trial before Magistrate Overby, who bound them over to court, Adams in the sum of $100 and Davis $50. Both gave bond and were discharged.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 16

THE PLANS TO RAISE THE BATTLESHIP MAINE.

Mr. Joseph DeWykoff's plans for raising the battleship Maine from the bottom of the harbor at Lavana are pronounced by eminent engineers to be feasible and sure of success. The work is to be done by means of a cofferdam. This dam will consist of a case of piling driven allaround the battleship as she lies on the bottom. The inside of the dam is then to be made water-tight to the bottom on all sides, after which the water will be pumped out. If this plan succeeds the ship will be left on the dry bottom where the rent in her hull can be repaired, if possible. After the repairs are made the water can be let back into the dam and thus the ship will be floated. If it is not practicable to repair and float the ship, she will be trimmed of her superstructure and equipments, and taken from the bottom in sections.

Mr. Wykoff's contract with the Cuban government for raising the ill-fated war ship was signed June 13th at Havana, but let us hope that his efforts will not meet with any bad luck on that account.

Mr. Wykoff pays to the Cuban government $2,500 as a forfeiture if he fails to carry out his contract. He must begin work within six months and complete it within one year. Within three months after he begins operations he shall pay into the Cuban treasury $5,000 of American gold, and if he succeeds in raising the hulk, the contract gives him title to it with permission to take it out of the harbor and dispose of it. He is also to get the treasure and the machinery and equipment, including arms, munitions of war, combustibles, and everything belonging to the ship as it lies.

A number of bodies which went down with the Maine when she was blown up were never recovered from the hulk. Mr. DeWykoff has arranged to either turn these over to the United States authorities to be sent home or be given Christian burial in Havana. If any bodies are found they will be turned over to Undertaker Marin who buried the victims that were recovered immediately after the terrible catastrophe.

Mr. DeWykoff is sure he will succeed in his enterprise. Mr. R. H. Sewall, a noted engineer, has been secured to plan and supervise the work. He is the engineer who gained a national reputation by having stopped the crevasses of the Mississippi river near New Orleans some years ago. He has submitted his plans to Mr. E. L. Corthell, who is known as the American DeLesseps, and that famous engineer pronounces the plans such as are bound to result in success.

It is understood that Mr. Wykoff will commence operations right away. If he succeeds in raising the Maine from her grave in the water and mud, he will have a fortune in material and souvenirs, but most likely the ship will be rescued for the purpose of making a perpetual exposition for the benefit of her owners.

The Maine was blown up on the night of February 15th, 1898, and one would scarcely believe that it is now more than six years since the appalling news was flashed over the world.

NO TIME TO SUCK WIND OR CUT BAIT.

The Charlotte News has a way of reaching the quick by the near cut. Here is the way our esteemed contemporary sends it home:

With a convention that strongly favored Parker, the Virginia folks let a few politicians like Daniel and Martin overrule their will and sent a delegation uninstructed, thus giving a setback to the candidacy of the man whom they wanted. It may take some time, but the people will learn after a while that the man who opposes instruction generally has his own axe to grind. He is either in favor of a candidate not acceptable to the majority, or he wants to do some trading on his own account. We hope that the North Carolina convention will take no chances with the trading folks and will instruct for the two men that the State wants on the ticket, Parker and Aycock.

Of course the whole State convention would no doubt endorse Governor Aycock for Vice President if it would be agreeable to him, but he has expressed the opinion that in his judgment the time has not yet come to place a Southern man on the ticket. However, the Vice Presidency aside, the News hits the bullseye about instructing for Parker.

The North Carolina State convention meets next Thursday at Greensboro and it ought to send to St. Louis a delegation that knows what it is going for. The people of North Carolina are for Parker and our delegation ought to represent the people. It is hoped that they will not go to the national convention to suck wind or cut bait for anybody.

NORTH CAROLINA DEMOCRATS

Congressman Jno. H. Small to be Temporary Chairman of the State Convention Next Thursday.

[Raleigh Post, June 15th.]

"I am not a candidate for delegate to the National Democratic Convention," declared United States Senator F. M. Simmons yesterday.

The report that Senator Simmons, Gov. C. B. Aycock and Senator Overman would be three of the big four from North Carolina to the convention in St. Louis has found its way into print, hence the "Post" reporter asked the senior senator if he was a candidate for the honor.

When Senator Simmons calls the body to order Thursday he will name Congressman John H. Small of the first district to preside as temporary chairman.

Governor Chas. B. Aycock will attend the convention and he will of course be called upon for a speech. This will be the first state convention of his party that the governor has witnessed since he accepted the nomination with his memorable speech in the Academy of Music here in 1900. Two years ogo he was detained in Raleigh and had to abandon his intention of seeing that gathering. It is probable that all the state officers will be in Greensboro next week. Senator Simmons has engaged his rooms at the Benbow.

The friends of the gubernatorial candidates are arranging for opening their headquarters.

Solicitor A. L. Brooks, manager of Major Stedman's campaign, has opened Stedman headquarters at the Hotel Guilford and has the use of the parlor in the northern part of the hotel.

Headquarters for the supporters of Capt. R. B. Glenn will be in the King building on West Market street.

The nomination of candidates will not necessarily be taken up the second day of the convention. That will rest with the convention. However, when the executive committee met here March 17th last the following was adopted:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this committee that the order of business in the next State convention be as follows:

"1. Organization.

"2. Adoption of resolutions and platform.

"3. Election of delegates to the national convetion.

"4. Nomination of candidates.

"Resolved, That the State chairman be be directed to embody the above provisions in his call for the State convention."

The Lumberton Argus announces that State Senator Joseph A. Brown, of Columbus, is a candidate for the nomination for Lieutenant-Governor. Ex-Judge F. D. Winston and Col. Geo. L. Morton are in the race for this nomination, while the names of Senator H. A. London and Senator Joseph Brown have been heard frequently mentioned.

The State chairman will be chosen at the Greensboro meeting. After the last campaign Senator Simmons expressed a desire to be relieved of this work, but among the politicians who visit Raleigh no other man seems to be under consideration for the place.

HOLLY AND MISTLETOE.

How the House Should Be Decked With Christmas Greens.

It would not be Christmas without a wreath of holly in the window or some touch of green about the home. The hall is the first place to be considered in decoration, as this gives the keynote to the rest of the house, says the Philadelphia Times. First and foremost is the mistletoe, or, as it used to be called, the "kissing" bough. This need not necessarily be of mistletoe alone, as holly can well be mixed with it. But it is correct to tie bows or true lovers' knots of various colored ribbons on to the stems. The larger this bough can be the better, and it should hang somewhere in the center of the hall.

If there is a looking glass hanging against the wall (and this is a great improvement to a small, narrow hall, as it gives an idea of space), let it be encircled by a loose holly wreath. At the foot of the stairs put a tall earthenware jar of artistic shape, and arrange in it tall boughs of holly and spruce.

The holly can be turned into a great variety of decorations for the home. The wreath is by far the most popular of the decorative designs. It is generally tied with a smart bow of scarlet ribbon. Frequently a star of red immortelles is set within the wreath.

The holly branches, with plentiful red berries showing against the glistening leaves, make an artistic garniture for the house. The branches are a graceful ornamentation for pictures, cornices and doors. In halls they are particularly effective when there is a fireplace that may be used as a background.

A gilded basket (you can gild it yourself at small cost) filled with holly and tied with broad, scarlet satin ribbon would make an effective centerpiece for the Christmas dinner table. A bunch of holly will of course crown the Christmas pudding, but a bunch of mistletoe must be tied under the chandelier in the parlor.

There are people who every Christmas put on great airs about their "real English mistletoe," but our American mistletoe answers all practical purposes, and the luck it brings and the salutation it invites are just as genuine as any foreign article. Every year the south is sending large quantities of mistletoe to market.

How to Send Christmas Gifts.

Never send a Christmas gift without your card or some means of identification. People do not like to have their pleasure tempered with mystery, says the New York World. Engraved cards are always in better taste than those written by hand. Written messages on an engraved card are permissible when sending a gift to a relative or intimate friend. A greeting, as "Merry Christmas" or "Season's Greetings," when used is written on the upper part of the face of the card. When simply a date is used, as "Christmas, 1903," write it in the lower left hand corner. It is customary for gentlemen to accompany their gifts with engraved cards bearing no inscription. Christmas gifts should always be neatly wrapped in perfectly fresh paper and daintily tied with a nice bit of string or narrow ribbon. In sending a gift in town, even to one's next door neighbor, employ a messenger or a servant; never a member of the family if it can be avoided. Always plan as nearly as possible to have a Christmas gift reach its destination on Christmas day. Better the afternoon or evening than the night before.

How to Make Cranberry Jelly.

Take two quarts of cranberries and boil until very soft. Strain out the juice and add as much sugar as there is juice. The juice will be more in the form of a thick pulp, for you have strained it not through a cloth, but through a coarse sieve. Now boil for twenty minutes, add a tablespoonful of gelatin dissolved in cold water and pour into a mold. Set away to cool. Send to the table turned out of the mold and garnish with meringues. For the meringues beat the whites of four eggs until very stiff. Add a third of a teaspoonful, scant, of cream of tartar. Whip again. Add a cup of sugar, scant, and a little vanilla. Press through a tube upon oiled paper and bake in an oven so slowly as only to dry them for half an hour.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The cotton market opened weak at a decline of nineteen to twenty points on the old crop and of nine to twelve points on the new crop positions in response to weak cables and generally favorable weather reports. Immediately following the call prices sold off another few points, but were then rallied slightly by covering as a result of report of floods along the Red river, which were said to have overflowed considerable areas in Arkansas and Louisiana. The average of crop reports was so good, however, that the news in this direction had little effect and the market soon resumed its downward tendency in spite of talk that the boll weevil were spreading into Georgia. During the middle session the market was comparatively quiet and more or less irregular with prices hanging around the opening figures, but shortly after midday selling became much more active and there was a sharp break, from which there was little or no recovery with the market finally barely steady at a net loss of twenty to fifty-two points, the old crop positions leading in the decline. The afternoon selling was largely from the South, but there was also aggressive bear pressure from local sources, and about the only buyers were spot houses and room shorts taking profits and the market worked downward. July at the best point of the morning sold at 11.67, from this it declined to 11.29, closing at that figure, while August broke from 11.20, the opening price to 10.90, also closing at the bottom. The later positions rallied about one to two points in the last three minutes, but the market gave no indication of any change. Sentiment remained very bearish on crop news and poor trade accounts. Sales of futures were estimated at 450,000 bales. Southern spot markets were generally quiet, and unchanged to ¼c. lower. The local spot market was quiet and unchanged.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— The Grand Masonic bodies are meeting in Raleigh this week.

— Two hundred representatives were present at the opening session of the Grand Lodge, K. of P., at Winston-Salem on Tuesday night.

— Raleigh Post: Rumors are afloat that in the Federal court at Charlotte some sensational indictments are about to be made. Is Port Arthur's doom to be again brushed aside as the center of interest? If the music starts in Charlotte it may be we will be unable to hear the fall.

— Greenville Reflector: Raleigh is the centre of a great upheaval of sentiment against the lax divorce laws that prevail in North Carolina. Every section of the state should join the movement to have the divorce laws changed by the next legislature. The law that is now in force is a disgrace to the state.

— Fayetteville Observer: Yesterday Sheriff Marsh garnisheed Mr. C. B. Ledbetter, superintendent of the Waterworks Company, for poll taxes due by several negroes of a large force he had employed digging ditches and laying pipes. This morning every one of the men, whether garnisheed or not, quit work (the latter fearing, no doubt, that they would be garnisheed), saying that they did not intend to pay any poll tax.

— Winston-Salem Sentinel: It may be of interest to those away from here who are commenting on the subject to learn that the letting out to the lowest bidder of several offices under the Salem municipal government is an old custom that is still honored in the observance. — Mr. J. F. Reynolds, who is in St. Louis, writes a friend here that Dr. J. A. Blum is doing his best to make a creditable tobacco exhibit for North Carolina at the Exposition, but that he is somewhat embarrassed by not having a sufficient amount of the weed. The Winston-Salem tobacconists are urged to send to Dr. Blum at once the material needed.

— The Junior Order, United American Mechanics, of Raleigh, is to have a great celebration at the State capital July 4th. There is to be a barbecue and a great pyrotechnic display, which alone will cost $2,000. There will be an exhibition by the fire department, drills by military companies, music by excellent bands and other features. A patriotic meeting will be held in Metropolitan Hall at 11 A. M. and the speakers will be Governor Chas. B Aycock, Chief Justice Walter Clark and President Geo. T. Winston, of the A. & M. College. Prof. Henry Jerome Stockard is expected to read an original poem. The railroads will reduce rates to Raleigh for the celebration.

— At Raleigh on Tuesday the Secretary of State chartered a railroad company for the purpose of constructing and operating a road from some point on the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line, near the Chatham and Wake county line, to some point in the southern part of Orange county. The name of the new company is The New Hope Valley Railroad Company, and the incorporators are William Moncure, W. L. London, H. A. London, M. T. Williams, T. N. Bland and W. R. Bonsal. The capital stock is $100,000. The Swain county bank, with $10,000 capital subscribed and $50,000 authorized, was chartered to do business at Bryson City, Permit was given to the Dover Yarn Mills, of Charlotte, to increase its capital stock to $100,000.

— On Tuesday night in Asheville, James H. Cline, editor of the Asheville Citizen, was attacked in his office by H. C. Chedester, junior member of the law firm of Chedester & Carter. The editor's eye-glasses were broken and his right eye cut. The lawyer received a bruise on one cheek. The assault was made because the editor refused to tell the lawyer who was the author of a paragraph in a communication signed "Vashti," which appeared in Sunday morning's Citizen, the writer of which was referring to the Democratic convention of Saturday. The paragraph is as follows: "One amusing thing in the proceedings was when Mr. Craig, by the simple wave of three fingers, caused Frank Carter's little Hugh Chedester to take his seat. This was when a point arose between the Jones and Murphy factions."

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, of Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years, and doctored all the time without being benefitted. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by E. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Trial bottles free; regular sizes 50c and $1.00. †

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience Mrs. S. H. Newson, of Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters, and the result was miraculous. I improved at once, and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 16.

BATTLE CONTINUES NEAR WAFANGOW.

Strong Possibility That Engagement Will Take Place With Vladivostok Squadron.

JAPS' TRANSPORTS ATTACKED

Russians Have Opened a Channel at Entrance to Port Arthur Harbor—Japanese Torpedo Boats Bombarded the Russian Outposts

By Cable to the Morning Star

LONDON, June 15.—The correspondent of the "Central News at Liao Yang telegraphed to-day as follows:

"The fighting at Vafangow (about 55 miles north of Port Arthur) was renewed to-day and is still proceeding. No details are obtainable, but there are persistent rumors that the Russians were partly successful, destroying three squadrons of cavalry and making prisoners sixty men. The Russian casualities in the fighting yesterday were three hundred and eight men killed or wounded. The Japanese casualities are not known."

The Vladivostok Squadron.

TOKIO, June 15, 3:30 P. M.—Reports of cannonading have been received here from various points, such as Chi-Kuzon. The exact nature of the operations of the Russian Vladivostok squadron is not disclosed.

The Japanese warships in the vicinity are hurrying to the scene. There is a strong possibility that a naval engagement will take place soon. No southern city in Japan is exposed to attack, but this Russian raid may prove expensive to shipping.

LONDON, June 15.—A dispatch to the "Central News from Tokio, filed at 6 P. M., to-day, says:

"A dispatch just received from Moji, says the cannonading at sea stopped at 1 P. M. There was a heavy sea in the straits all day. The Japanese merchant steamers are known to have left various ports for Moji and there is much anxiety about their fate."

It is rumored to-night that the Russian warships have gone eastward.

Transports Attacked.

TOKIO, June 15, 6 P. M.—It is reported here that the Japanese protected cruiser Nitaka engaged the Russian Vladivostok squadron off Tsu island in the strait between Corea and Japan. This report, however, lacks confirmation.

The Japanese transports Ugo and Fuyo, homeward bound, met the Russian vessels, near Oki island. The Russians pursued them and fired 16 shots at the Japanese ships. The transports escaped and reached Kacusomoto.

TOKIO, June 15.—Three Japanese transports, outward bound from Shimonoseki, met the Russian warships this morning outside the strait of Corea. The Russians fired 18 shots at the Japanese ships. One transport escaped. The fate of the other two is not known.

Bombarding Outposts.

TOKIO, June 15, 4 P. M.—A flotilla of torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers, under the command of Captain Tsuchiya and in co-operation with the army, made a reconnoissance in force near Shao-Ping island yesterday and bombarded the Russian outposts on the coast to the west of the island. Shao Ping island is twelve miles to the west of Port Arthur. At noon the Russian cruiser Novik, convoying ten torpedo boat destroyers, steamed out from Port Arthur. The Russian shore batteries protected these vessels with a heavy cannonade. The Japanese flotilla retreated slowly, firing as it went, for the purpose of decoying the enemy to sea. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the Russian ships returned to the entrance of Port Arthur. The fact that the Novik came out of Port Arthur makes it certain that the Russians have succeeded in blasting a channel through the cement laden merchantmen sunk by the Japanese in the entrance to the harbor.

This freedom of egress comes too late to permit of any effect on the operations of the Japanese army, for men, guns and stores have practically all been landed, and Admiral Togo is capable of keeping the remnants of the Russian fleet imprisoned in Port Arthur. Last Monday night Japanese vidette boats, protected by torpedo boat destroyers, succeeded in reaching the entrance to Port Arthur and planted a series of mines. The darkness of midnight favored the operation. The Japanese vessels were not observed and they returned to the rest of the squadron without having sustained any damage.

Great Japanese Victory.

LONDON, June 16.—A dispatch to the "Daily Express" from Tokio, dated June 15, says news has been received there but has not yet been officially published, of a great Japanese victory near Fu-Chou, on the railway seventy miles north of Port Arthur. The Russians, it is added, were overwhelmed, lost a thousand men, left all their guns on the field and retreated in disorder.

The "Daily Chronicle's" correspondent at Tokio cables the same news, adding that the Russians, to the number of 7,000 men, are now in full flight towards Tshi-Chaiao and Kai-Chou.

The 51st annual commencement of Roanoke College, was marked by the inauguration of President J. A. Morehead, elected. The installation address was delivered by Hon. A. M. Bowman of Salem, Va., vice president of the board of trustees.

THE NEXT REUNION AT LOUISVILLE, KY.

Lieutenant General Stephen D. Lee Was Elected Commander-in-Chief

BY CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Routine Business at Yesterday's Session. Officers Elected--Committee Reports The Annual Parade—Sons of Veterans—Reception, Etc

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NASHVILEE, TENN., June 15.—A sweet-voiced young woman of Norfolk, Va., Miss Mary K. Ewell, maid of honor for the South, by her singing of "My Old Kentucky Home" to-day won for Louisville the reunion next year of the United Confederate Veterans. It was after the old veterans had chosen Lieut. Gen. Stephen D. Lee as their commander-in-chief, and had listened to a stirring speech by Col. Bennett H. Young, of Kentucky, extolling the beauties, capability and hospitality of his home city and people, and their desire to entertain the followers of the Stars and Bars, that Miss Ewell was escorted to the front of the stage. Her voice thrilled the great crowd that filled the Tabernacle and the last note of the famous melody had scarcely left her lips when the convention went wild with shouts of "Louisville," "Louisville."

Seconding speeches were unnecessary, although Gen. Lee graciously permitted one from a Virginia delegate and another from Kentucky. The date will be determined later. In addition to the election of officers, and the disposal of a vast amount of routine business, but did not complete their work and a final session will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The report of Adjutant General Mickel shows that since the last reunion charters have been issued to forty new camps, making the total 1,563.

The Women's Monument Association was instructed by the veterans to turn over all funds to the Sons of Veterans, who will complete the work of erecting a monument to the women of the South.

The most interesting part of the committee on resolutions report is as follows:

First, that section requesting Congress to take appropriate action looking to the care and preservation of the graves of the Confederate dead now in the various cemeteries in the Northern States, be adopted.

Second, the committee reports to the association that more than one application has been made to this association to fix a permanent place for our annual reunions; but your committee is of the opinion that for the present it would be wise for many reasons to hold our annual reunions as heretofore at such time and places as the association shall fix from year to year. Adopted.

Resolved, That all Confederate veterans regularly enrolled in this association, and none other, shall be eligible to election or appointment in this association. Adopted.

At noon the regular business of the convention was set aside for the memorials. Judge Thomas G. Jones, of Montgomery, was the orator. All the departed heroes of the Confederacy were referred to by several speakers, but General John B. Gordon, the last great figure to pass over to the invisible beyond, was made the occasion of special tribute.

The Southern Confederate Memorial Association met, heard numerous welcoming addresses and responses and adjourned until to-morrow.

The veterans will have their annual parade to-morrow morning, the start to be made at ten o'clock. Owing to the increasing infirmities of the old soldiers, the route was almost cut in two to-day by those having the parade in charge.

The Sons of Veterans will elect officers to-morrow.

The most brilliant function of the reunion occurred to-night at the Golf and Country Club. It was a reception and ball complimentary to the sponsors and maids-of-honor by the Sons of Veterans.

Election of Officers.

The United Confederate Veterans to-day elected the following officers:

Commander-in-Chief, Lieutenant General Stephen D. Lee, of Columbus, Miss.

Commander of the Department of Northern Virginia, General G. Irvine, of Greenville, S. C.

Commander of the Department of Tennessee, Gen. Clement A. Evans, of Atlanta, Ga.

Commander of the Trans-Mississippi Department, General W. L. Cabell, of Dallas, Texas.

Sons of Veterans.

NASHVILLE, TENN., June 15.—The Sons of United Confederate Veterans met to-day, Commander-in-Chief Fayssoux presiding. Reports of different committees were heard. It was recommended that headquarters of the organization in New Orleans be accepted and that a permanent secretary be employed. The total number of camps was announced as 481, but only 104 are in good standing. The quartermaster announced that after paying the expenses of the year the cash in hand was $13. Former Governor McMillan addressed the sons, congratulating them on the fact that the histories being taught in the Tennessee public schools were written by Confederates.

Chairman Owen submitted the report of the historical committee and it was adopted. It showed that the North was showing a spirit of co-operation in the matter of Southern history and was returning trophies to the South.

Louisville invited the Sons to meet there next year.

STEAMER BURNED TO WATER'S EDGE.

Appalling Catastrophe on East River, a Short Distance from New York City.

MORE THAN 600 LIVES LOST.

Women and Children Burned to Death or Drowned—About 500 Bodies Recovered--Hold of the Vessel Choked With Remains of Bodies.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The three-decked excursion steamer General Slocum, of the Knickerbocker Steamboat Company, burned to the water's edge off Brothers Island to-day, resulting in the death through burning or drowning of at least six hundred persons, mostly women and children. Four hundred and forty-seven bodies had been recovered to-night and divers were at work taking bodies from the hold of the steamer. The remains of many persons who leaped into the river have not yet been found, and it will be many hours before the list of dead is anywhere near complete.

The General Slocum, one of the largest excursion steamers in these waters, left Third street, East river, at 9:30 o'clock this morning, having on board the annual Sunday school excursion of St. Mark's German Lutheran church, located in Sixth street. Her destination was Locust Grove, one of the many resorts on Long Island sound. The excursion was in charge of Rev. Gustave C. W. Haas, pastor of the church. The vessel was commanded by Captain William van Schaik, one of the best known excursion boat captains in New York harbor. He has commanded the General Slocum for almost the entire time since she was built in 1891. The number of excursionists on board to-day is variously estimated at from 1,500 to 2,500, but according to an official statement issued by the Knickerbocker Steamboat Company, owners of the Slocum, the number of passengers was 873, that being one-third of the vessel's licensed capacity.

The steamer, after leaving her dock this morning proceeded up the East river, all three of her decks being crowded with merrymakers. Bands played and the great side-wheeler was decorated with flags from stem to stern.

The Slocum had reached a point near the Sunken Meadows off 135th street, Manhattan, which is at the extreme eastern end of Randall's Island, when fire broke out in a lunch room on the forward deck. The blaze was caused by the overturning of a pot of grease. The headway of the vessel and a high wind almost instantly fanned the insignificant flame into fury. Efforts were at once directed to subduing the fire, but they were futile. The blaze spread aft with almost lightning rapidity. Captain van Schaik, in the pilot house, had been informed of the outbreak of the fire and realizing the danger to the hundreds of excursionists, decided to send his vessel to the shore at 134th street. At this point there are a number of lumber yards and several huge oil tanks and the captain was warned that to attempt to land at this point would endanger the property and perhaps further imperil the scores of people, who had already been frightened into a state of almost uncontrollable excitement.

Changing the big steamer's course slightly he headed her for North Brother Island, half a mile away.

By this time the flames were rushing by leaps and bounds from the forward part of the ship.

The great open decks, built for excursionists with little obstruction from bow to stern, offered a clear sweep for the fire. As the Slocum dashed forward the flames caught stanchion and cabin woodwork, eating and tearing their way across the vessel.

The excursionists, but a few moments before in the full enjoyment of an ideal Summer's day on Long Island sound, were driven to the after part of the steamer to escape the heat, flames and smoke, which were constantly increasing. Policemen and deck hands aboard struggled hard to quiet the panic, but their efforts were in vain. The wild disorder increased, as frantic mothers sought to find their children, who had been at play about the decks.

The steamer's whistle was blowing for assistance and tugs and other near by craft answered to the call. Before any of the boats could reach the burning steamer, however, the frantic women and children began to jump overboard. The current was strong and there are many whirlpools in the channel. The boats that always abound in the vicinity picked up many persons from the water, but these were only a small number of those that were seen struggling in the swift current.

On the Slocum the first sweep of the flames cut off escape from the hurricane deck, where a great many of the women and children were crowded together, and soon burned away the light wood of the uprights which came down with a crash on those below.

It is thought that most of those on the hurricane deck were burned.

As the fire increased, the struggle to gain a point of vantage at the stern became frightful. Women and children crowded against the after rail until it gave way and hundreds were pushed off into the river. After this there was a steady stream of persons who jumped or were thrown into the water.

By this time the shrieking whistle of the Slocum had attracted the attention of river craft for a considerable distance around, and tugs and other small boats were rushing to the assistance of the burning steamer.

These small boats rescued all those in the water whom they could reach, but many persons struggled and sunk before any help could reach them. In the wake of the Slocum as she hurried up stream was a line of little black spots, marking the heads and bodies of those who had sought to escape the roaring furnace on the ship by throwing themselves overboard.

Few of those saved by the small boats had on life preservers. At no time during the progress of the fire was there an opportunity to either lower the life boats or get the life preservers out from underneath the seats. This perhaps, gives an idea of the rapidity with which the flames swept the decks. It was an experience harrowing and terrible and that any escaped alive seems wonderful. Through all the wild panic, during all that inferno, with fire and smoke surrounding them the officers and men of the doomed boat remained at their posts, but they were powerless to avert the catastrophe.

The Slocum got within fifty feet of the northwest point of North Brother Island and there stopped in the shallow water. It was just before she beached that the hurricane deck, the supports of which had burned away, fell with its load of women and children, adding to the panic and horror of those on the deck below. Very soon after parts of the second and third decks also caved in. But before this happend the tug Walter Tracey had come alongside the burning steamer and been lashed to it. Many of the passengers were taken off by the crew of the Tracey, which remained alongside the steamer until the tug's pilot house took fire.

The point where the Slocum beached was just off the scarlet fever ward on North Brothers Island. The patients who had been out on the porches and lawns watching the approach of the burning steamer, were ordered indoors, and the physicians on the island hastened to the assistance of those who were being brought ashore through the shallow water. Many of those who leaped from the Slocum were carried away by the current even after she was beached, and were drowned.

The scene on North Brothers Island as described by the rescuers was a pitiful one. Body after body was washed ashore or brought in by boats and added to the long row on the beach. Fifty-three persons died there while the doctors were attending them.

As the bodies of the living and the dead were taken out of the water, those alive were taken to the hospitals on the island or sent across the river to hospitals in Mahattan. Here ambulances from almost all the hospitals in Greater New York and every other sort of conveyance which could be found, were put into service.

For hours the bodies of the burned and the drowned drifted ashore on the island, and between 131st and 138th streets in Manhattan. Some came ashore still alive. Many of these died, while others will recover.

The scenes on the beach of North Brothers Island were pitiable in the extreme, as the living and the dead were brought in. Women with disfigured faces, their clothes partially stripped from them, were carried to the improved emergency hospital crying for children who had been torn from them in the mad rush when the boat took fire.

Meanwhile the Slocum burned to the water's edge. At 12:35 o'clock, two hours and twenty-five minutes after she first was discovered she sank. It is estimated that there were then nearly 100 charred bodies on her decks. Just after the steamer sank the water near by was black with bodies. The tug Fidelity succeeded in picking up eighty-eight charred corpses in Hunt's Cove, off Raker's Island and carried them into the sound. None of these bodies it is thought can ever be identified.

At the end of the Charities pier at the foot of East 26th street, the crowd to-night tried to push past the police and a riot resulted. At the height of the trouble a man who had learned that his wife was among the charred dead, tried to stab himself. Inside the pier the bodies are ranged in three rows, the entire length of the pier, about 150 feet.

St. Mark's Lutheran church contained in its membership practically all those Germans of the Protestant faith within a radius of ten square blocks. The excursion was the event of the year for scores of well-to-do German families and had been looked forward to for many months. Family parties of ten or more had been made up, including in many cases the old grandmothers, the mother and the children of all ages, with a sprinkling of those men of the families who could spare a day from their work.

Edward VanWart, the pilot of the General Slocum, said to-night:

"When I first discovered the presence of fire on the steamer I decided to make for the first dock that I could find, but in a moment I was informed that all the ropes by which we usually tied up had been burned. I then decided to make for the first point of land where there were no rocks and beach the vessel and this I did. The presence of rocks all along the shore made it impossible for me to beach the vessel any sooner than I did."

VanWart was taken before Coroner Berry and was paroled in the custody of his counsel.

One of the tragic incidents of the day was the death of the family of Dr. Haas. His wife, Gertrude, and his daughter, Anna, are among the dead.

It is alleged that the life preservers were too securely fastened to their holdings to be available, and stories are told of frantic efforts made by strong men to cut them loose; but even if they could have been torn down they were too high up for the people to reach. It is also alleged that no attempt was made to get out the fire apparatus at the first cry of "fire," though Captain Van Schaick says that he immediately rang the bells for getting out the apparatus. According to several statements no attempt was made to lower boats or life rafts.

Captain Van Schaick and his two pilots, named Edward Van Wert and E. M. Weaver, have been arrested.

RAISULI'S DEMANDS

Have Caused a Hitch in Negotiations for Release of Captives.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—A serious hitch has occurred in the negotiations for the release of Perdicaris and Varley, the American and Englishman captured in Tangier by the bandit Raisuli. The details communicated to the State Department by Consul General Gummere indicate that Raisuli has vastly enlarged his original demands. He now insists upon absolute control of no less than four Moorish provinces and besides, that no less than three nations including the United States guarantee the absolute performance of the Sultan's promise. The demands are regarded as absolutely impossible of compliance here notwithstanding what effect the refusal may have on the fate of the captives.

NEGRO WOMAN LYNCHED.

Taken from Jail and Hanged and Shot by a Mob.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LEBANON JUNCTION, KY., June 15.—Maria Thompson, colored, who last night killed John Irwin, a wealthy white farmer, was taken from the jail to-day and hung to a tree in the jail yard. She weighs 255 pounds and the rope broke. As she ran away the mob fired a fusillade after her until she fell and was left for dead. The officers, however, found signs of life and removed the woman to a physician's office, where it was found that she had been shot in several places and could not recover. Irwin had reproved Mrs. Thompson's boy, who worked for him. Afterward Mrs. Thompson came into Irwin's melon patch and slashed Irwin until he was dead.

A riot broke out at the plant of the Continental Tobacco Company at Louisville yesterday, when 200 striking negro men attempted to prevent 500 negro women employed at the plant from going to work. Police were compelled to resort to the use of clubs and revolvers.
